SPC PRODUCT LINES

An Overview of Johnson's SPC Rigid Core Luxury Vinyl Flooring

Many customers are interested in the hype of worry-free flooring that SPC offers, but what exactly is SPC? SPC flooring stands for Stone Plastic Composite (or Solid Polymer Core), and they are engineered luxury vinyl planks manufactured to resemble natural wood but at a lower price point and less maintenance than hardwood floors. At Johnson Hardwood, our SPC floors are made with the following innovative technologies:

1. Protective wear layer for increased impact and wear resistance
2. Registered embossing (EIR) for a hyper-realistic wood texture
3. Unique printed design for real-looking wood details
4. WaterShield SPC Rigid Core for 100% waterproofing and increased durability
5. Underlayment for shock absorption and sound proofing
6. No glue, easy click installation
7. Phthalate, formaldehyde, and harmful chemical-free certifications

GREEN STORY

Green Guard Gold Certified - Help reduce indoor air pollution and chemical exposure.

Phthalate Free - Chemicals that damage the liver/kidneys/lungs/reproductive system.

Perfect Duet...

A seamless transition of flooring throughout the entire house.

Ever fall in love with hardwood flooring and wish that you could install it throughout the entire house? Now, you have the potential to install similar colored and styled flooring without worrying about common “splash zone” sections like the kitchen, laundry room, and bathroom. Johnson Hardwood’s Public House Series features highly rated engineered hardwood colors - several of them from the winner of “Surfaces Best of 2015 Style & Design” Alehouse Series. The Public House Series has all the beauty of real hardwood with all the benefits of SPC flooring. Innovative technology such as a thick 30-mil wear layer, our Watershield SPC Rigid Core Hybrid, and registered embossing (EIR), ensures durable, waterproof, and realistic low pattern-repeat flooring. These beautiful worry-free floors will match the bustle and joy of any lifestyle.

Sicily — the heart of the Mediterranean Sea. Johnson Hardwood's Sicily Collection reflects the island surrounded by alluring oceans and a rich history with its own diverse twist.

With multiple width planks that reach 6-foot lengths, this Rigid Core floor creates a magnificent visual with hyper-realistic wood images.

The collection is extremely durable as well as completely waterproof, utilizing our WaterShield SPC Rigid Core technology. Backed with our sound control underlayment made of IXPE foam, you'll be sure to enjoy the benefits of cushioning, shock absorption, and sound-proofing. Installation is easy and secure, stable enough to hold and prevent moisture from seeping through by using the Valinge 2G's simple click and lock method.
